I, (PRINT CLEARLY) _____, attest that I have represented my driving and racing credentials completely and accurately. I understand this is a list of minimum standards and experience for driving in Northeast GT sessions, and that Northeast GT does not accept any liability for the results of misconduct – everyone is personally responsible for any damages following their own judgment and waives all rights to lay claim resulting from any cause whatsoever either before, during or after this event. While drivers are not required to have a doctor fill out a medical form in order to compete, participants must not have any known medical conditions or be under the influence of medication that would cause them or others undue risk. By signing below, I attest that I am able to handle the physical and mental demands of competition.
